Tom Fritsch has a range of legal experience that is matched by very few lawyers anywhere in the country. Over the past 27 years, Tom has practiced corporate law at some of the nation's most prestigious law firms and has also been the General Counsel of a family office, Smith Management; a Partner and the General Counsel of a multibillion dollar hedge fund, Plainfield Asset Management; the General Counsel of a multibillion dollar private equity fund, Alterna Capital Partners; and the General Counsel of a registered investment advisor and affiliated insurance company, Haven Asset Management and Time Insurance Company.

During the course of Tom's career he has worked on a wide array of corporate matters including numerous M&A transactions, joint ventures, lending transactions, corporate restructurings and corporate governance matters.

As a reflection of Tom's broad-based experience in transactional matters, he was appointed as Foley's first ever Knowledge Management counsel for the Business Law Group. Tom is also one of the leaders of the firm's Corporate Transparency Act task force. Tom is a member of the firm's Transactions and Insurance Practice Groups.
