Federico Goudie is a partner and business lawyer with Foley & Lardner LLP. Federico is based in the firm's Miami office, where he is a member of both the firm's Finance and Transactions Practice Groups.

Federico has over twenty years of experience advising companies and government entities, particularly those in Latin America, on a wide array of corporate matters. He advises international financial institutions, multinational corporations, and sovereigns in capital markets transactions and structured and trade financings, project financings, and derivative transactions. In addition, he counsels his clients in mergers and acquisitions, private equity, joint ventures, and general corporate and commercial matters.

Representative Experience*

- Represented TechOps, an Aeromexico and Delta joint venture for the operation of a MRO facility in Mexico, in connection with an agreement to grant MRO Holdings, one of America's largest MRO providers, access to TechOps' capacity for a period of ten years.
- Represented SPAC Isos Acquisition Corp. in its US$2.6 billion IPO merger with Bowlero Corp. that took the world's largest owner and operator of bowling centers public.
- Represented financial advisory firm Geller & Co. in connection with the sale of Geller's outsourced CFO and business services division to Bloomberg LP.
- Represented Paraguay in all sovereign bonds issuance beginning in 2017, including its emergency US$ 1 billion issuance to raise funds for the country's fight against COVID-19 and its 2021 sovereign bond issuance and concurrent "switch" tender offer, the first ever for the country.
- Represented the Central Bank of Paraguay in a landmark currency swap agreement with the International Finance Corporation.
- Represented U.K. sports and fashion retailer JD Sports Fashion in the acquisition of U.S. athletic footwear, apparel, and accessories retailer DTLR Villa.
