William (Bill) Kalas is an associate in the Detroit office and practices in the Commercial Litigation group.

Prior to joining Foley, Bill was a senior associate at a nationally recognized boutique litigation firm specializing in Class Action and Multi-District Litigation matters. Bill also served as a judicial intern for the Honorable George Caram Steeh at the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Bill has experience with all stages of complex litigation — including discovery, motion practice, settlement, and appeals — and is an effective collaborator with both co-counsel and opposing counsel.
